“ Bob was a pure gentleman both on and off the job. Never had a bad word to say about anyone,, never blew a fuse and always kept the cool even when the pressure was on.

Always enjoyed working with him and of course having a few beers, which was normally always a different country each time we met. He will be sadly missed by all of us.

RIP Bob!

“ Bob was one of the nicest guy we have ever met. He was always so proud of his boys. We will always have great memories of being with you at the zoo, ski trips at Boyne, in Colorado at Keystone, boating in Charlevoix and hanging ski poles at our cottage in Harrisville. All those flag football games and going to watch football with our sons at the big house. Sharing family times with our sons will never be forgotten. You are the best dad ever Bob. Memories never forgotten. The Harber's Kim, Dan, Danny, and Lauren
