“ We met Bob through Terry when they were dating. I could see why she liked him. He is kind. a gentleman, and full of stories with a punch line. What a smile and a laugh. We have done so many fun things over the years, he made them so enjoyable. You could see the love they have together. The way he would look at her and she him. He will be missed especially at poker and when playing acesey duesey. "Okay Bob, it's your bet.....He is in our hearts till we see again.

“ Terry, I was saddened to hear of Bob's passing. I enjoyed a great professional relationship with him- he was my first supervisor in the office at NPD, and that grew to include good fun at golf and poker-great times. I have thought of him often and fondly over the years, and please know you and he will occupy a special place in my memory....

“ Jim & I met Robert and Terry on a Mixed golf league at Fox Hills. We were novices at the game and they were very forgiving of our horrible play and made us feel comfortable when partnered with them. Robert was an all around fun loving guy and we shared many enjoyable dinners with him. We started playing cards with Robert & Terry and had so much fun while enjoying the good music Robert picked out for us. Our last great memory we have of Robert is when he & Terry came to see us in Indian River. We shared good meals, played cards, and boated down the Indian River with them. We are grateful for these good memories and Robert will be dearly missed. With love, “ Terry, so sorry for your loss. I enjoyed all our fun times when we golfed in our league at Fox Hills. Our weekend trip to the Battle Creek area was a riot! I remember Bob complaining because I booked the tee times so early. I think the morning tee times were around 10:00. How early is that? He was such a character with a great sense of humor. I always enjoyed spending time with the two of you.

“ we first met robert (and terry) over a poker table. six "forever" friends in need of another couple for some serious texas hold'em. over the next couple of decades we became the eight "forever" friends. who could not be a friend of robert's? he was always a gentleman; courteous, and polite. he had a smile that was infectious and a laugh that was contagious. he could tell stories that would have you chuckling for weeks and share antidotes by the yard.

we were blessed to be able to share many more poker games, meals, day trips, longer trips, geezer trips, 4th of july's at the cottage, other holidays and so much more with both robert and terry. it was a pleasure to see how robert enjoyed all he did with his life. his love for terry, abbie, family, friends, country music, camping and michigan, was honest and endearing. plus, it gave him more material for those famous stories.

robert, we wanted more time with you, but are so grateful for the time we did share.

you were more than a friend, you were our family. god speed

“ Jerry and I first met Robert and Terry at Fox Hills golf course where we joined a couples league. We enjoyed many years of good and bad golf , always dinners afterwards, but most of all laughs around the table, as Robert was ever the entertainer. He told us stories with such a straight face, that when he delivered that punch line, we were all in stitches. I will miss that.

The four of us loved to cruise and took many trips together. One that I will always remember is the Hawaii trip. Robert and I got up before dawn, hiked up a mountain to watch the sunrise over the volcano. It was amazing. After the cruise he presented me with a framed picture of the event for me to hang on my wall in our home. It was special then, but holds so much more meaning now, and will always remind me of that shared moment.

Thank you Robert for your friendship. You will be truly missed.
