“ Robert Swinea, very proud man, of his family and his time in the Navy. He gave me a book to take home to read that had the history of his ship, the USS Salem, excited to have me read it. I read the important parts, about him. He also encouraged a visit to a site that had amazed him, and wanted to share it - the House on The Hill. Special man, unique in many ways, who touched my heart and will forever live there.
