“ Dear family of Robert, I'm so sorry for your loss. My Dad died 5 years ago, a big void is what you are left with. I miss him so much. The painful memories don't come as often. I try to think more about the good times. I hope to see him again some day. I keep my faith strong in God's promise of a resurrection and sharing my thoughts like these have been therapy for me. Please note these scriptures in your Bible- Revelation 21:1-5, Acts 24:15. I hope all shared will comfort you.

“ I have fond memories of Bob. We met at Harvest Christian Church in 1988. He was like a "Dad" to my husband, Robert. They spent many years having breakfast together every Monday morning sharing about the Lord. He watched our sons grow to adulthood and will be missed. I know Bob has joined my Bob in Heaven with their Savior.
