“ I met Rod about 33 years ago. He became my father in law for a bit. What I'll always remember about Rod, is that his life history. He was a very interesting and he was so humorous and a charming man. When he spoke, you couldn't help but listen intently to a story or, laugh at a joke. And yes, like Johns jokes, laugh at the animated way he told them, not exactly the humor in them. I always liked that Rod was such a humble man as well. For a man with such successes in life, he was" just an "ol guy down on the farm" I had heard him say more than once. The best thing about Rod, was that he loved his family. They meant everything to him.

“ Rod was a second father to me for almost two years now. I would not want know one else as a father-in-law. The many stories and laugh around the Sunday supper table will always hold a dear place in my heart. John asking me, whats for dinner will always bring a tear to my eye. I love you and will miss our talks. You were always interest in me asking how I am and how work is going. You were a great strength to your family and now John, will be in ours, having learned from a great man. I promised you I would help take care of Sue, I will until you are with her again. I love you, Cheri

“Dad was and is my hero. Everywhere we went he made friends. The many accolades he received over the years were a mere sample of the man he was. Loving, caring and the funniest person I know I am so proud to be his son. I love you dad.

“Rod was a wonderful, kind, and smart man with a great sense of humor. He served as President of the Michigan Chapter of the FBI National Academy Associates in 1985. If you knew him, you respected him, and rest assured, he respected you. He was a professional in every sense of the word. This was a very good man. Joe Koenig (retired MSP)

*I think we will all miss Rod's sense of humor and all of those stories of where we grew up. (back in the 40s and 50s). --- We worked together while at the PLPD and shared a LOT of laughs and good times. Rod was the life of the party, regardless of the group size. He will be missed by all.
