“ Deidre met Roly when she was a child so she remembered him but I didn't get the opportunity to meet him until a few years ago, and I'm so glad I did. I'm not going to speak of him in the past tense because obviously he lives on both in the spirit world and in all his family and friends. He is so strong and inspirational to me when I had my prostate cancer surgery. He is a joy to be around and we will miss him, but we'll see him again on the other side.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1 Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Some of my fondest memories from the 80's involved working with Roland serving the Ford Account at UARCO. Always professional, always ethical, always bringing humor into nearly any situation. I appreciate Roland's contributions to my life and my prayers are with his family and close friends.

“ My Allison, Jennifer and Jason, You three are the most special people in the world to me...your mom and dad shaped you all into the wonderful adults that you are today. You are their legacy and I know they are both so proud of you. Allison, you have their strength, courage and compassion; Jenni, you have their tender joy of life and all things in it; Jason, you have a love of life, a sense of humor and your dad's twinkle in your eyes. I love you all so very much, may God bless you and keep you safe and comfort you in your sorrow. HIS loving embrace holds your mom and dad now and know that our embrace is always there for you, you are family.

“ Although I knew Roly mainly through his relationship with my parents, Rolfe and Kathy Worden, I still have very distinct, fond memories of meeting him at a Jenkins family reunion many years ago in Anderson, Indiana. Roly was a fun, gregarious guy who made me laugh, and whom I liked instantly. He will be missed.
