I have so many fond memories of the conversations and laughs we shared. He defiantly tried to present a tough exterior but was such a caring person. I will miss my Uncle Ronnie dearly.

“ My dear Uncle Ronnie, my coffee drinking buddy how I am going to miss you. I never even thanked you for stopping smoking your cigars around me, you always try to act so tuff but deep down you was a softy. Many days you came and even sat with me when I was in the nursing home we just couldn't go long without our coffee time together. You just don't know how much I am really going to miss you grumpy. I love you
