“ Ron has always been a big brother but he took on cares of not only his family, but also his brother and sister, and took on the roll of father to his brokers and sister. He stepped in to take care of our mother as well. He was a great caring man and I will never forget him. Rest in peace, Ron. I love equate you.

“ My condolences to Ron’s family at their loss.

My brother Ron was a hardworking man, a devoted husband / father & grandfather, he will be missed. My most vivid memory of him was after our father suddenly passed away when I was just a little boy, which affected me for many months after. To help me cope with this loss Ron would take me fishing on the Detroit River. We had good times together doing this, which meant a lot to me back then. Today, I still think about those good times.

*Rest in peace Ron
