“ When we were teenagers Ronnie had a red Corvair with a 45 rpm record player attached under the dash. We’d cruise around the neighborhood and everyone thought Ronnie was the coolest dude. Yes, he was. Sincere condolences ☐.

When the kids were younger, they all went skiing together, then he and Jack would take their turns. We had so fun. They cleared the land for their Lake House, they sunk, they itched, but they did it and laughed. Our boys played hockey together for years, we met when he was coaching our son in baseball. Those were great times, he was a great man, he did so much for his kids, and most of all he adored his wife. He was a good, loving and honest man. We were proud to call him our Friend. So much love for him and his family. We just keep on missing him.
