Cindy, Charlie, Amanda, and family, you were his most cherished beings. All of which he was all too proud to revolve life around. May you find comfort in the peace he is now surrounded by in heaven. May you always feel his warmth as you navigate through your grieving journey. Love is always on your side. Xo

“Mr. Suder’s laughter, light, and quick wit touched the lives of everyone he met. He had an incredible ability to bring joy to any situation. His knack for jokes was legendary—he was always the first to lighten the mood with a clever remark or a well-timed quip.

I fondly remember our trip to Iowa for volleyball nationals in middle school, Mr. Suder was the one who drove us all the way there, as I apparently slept the entire way. He never let me forget it, affectionately calling me "Sleeping Beauty" every time I came over and telling anyone who would listen about me sleeping for 9 straight hours! 😂 He was also the reason we made it to the State Tournament Amanda’s Senior Year! During a tense moment in the Regional Finals (sorry Franklin High School) Mr. Suder accidentally tossed a volleyball onto the court, changing the entire momentum of the game in our favor...from then on, the game was ours! Woohoo!

Mr. Suder was the epitome of an amazing husband, father, grandfather, brother, son, uncle, and friend. He gave his all to his family and friends. He made the world brighter, funnier, and better for everyone who had the privilege of knowing him. Rest in peace sweet man. ❤️
