“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Rosalie will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Rosalie again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Nina, Matt, Joe and John....we will all miss your wonderful Mom.....My Aunt was such a wonderful person, we will all miss her. I will always remember her as a fantastic cook, the best baker and her cannoli cream recipe was the best ever - I still use it.....God has blessed her on this eternal journey she has taken and I know that the reunion with her parents, her Sister Jenny and My Dad and her brother Sam must have been FANTASTIC....hugs, Tina and Mike

“ Dearest Giaimo family, I am so sorry for your loss. My name more than likely does not sound familiar however my grandparents were Sam and Rosalie Badalamente. There daughter Ida is my mother. I remember seeing all of you at the festivals and sometimes still stil some of the cousins. Please know that my prayers and thoughts go out to you and your failmy. May God comfort you and give you strength during your time of need and the hards times ahead. Lean on one another. gob Bless, Sincerely, Dawn Marie
