“ ODE TO ROSE

*When death's hand comes to take me away
bid me a fond farewell for I cannot stay.*

*Say good-bye to me with laughter say good-bye to me with mirth, remember me fondly
for all that I was worth.*

Go about your life under God's bright sun, don't dwell on the past for my time here was done.

When the sorrow begins to subside and time spreads o'er the earth, remember that winter's death is spring's rebirth.

*If you are missing me amid Spring's gentle showers, come to the garden path
I am there among the flowers.*

May the grief your family feels today be replaced with loving memories and the knowledge that Rose will live forever through your love for one another and the qualities that she has handed down to each and everyone of you. God bless you all.

“ Dear Lou,
My heart goes out to you and your family.
Keeping you and yours in my thoughts and prayers.

*Don't think of Mom as gone away,
Her journey has just begun.
Life holds so many facets,
This earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears, in a place of warmth and comfort,
Where there are no days or years.
Think of how she must be wishing,
that we could know, today, How nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched For nothing Loved is ever lost And she was Loved SO Much.*

*God Bless

“ Lou, Shelley and family: Dee and I would like to wish our deepest sympathy for the passing of Rose. While her physical presence will be immensely missed we know she is in a much better place. Rose had a sparkling personality and the sweetest heart which always radiated through. Rose was petite in stature but more than made up for it with the biggest heart and a lively as well as lovely sense of humor. We always enjoyed visiting with her at various functions on the Ferris Estate. And while words can not adequately convey our sadness for your loss, know that we love all of you and will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.

Love, Stan and Dee
