“ Death has been the hardest thing to understand because it comes to anyone. It comes when we are not expecting it. I want you to know that in any situation we may be, God Jehovah does not ignore. but it is comforting to know that his promise at Isaiah 33: 23-24 will come true when he will heal all mankind and no resident will say i'm sick. Psalms 147: 3 says that even now he gives as comfort that, he is healing the broken hearted ones and binding their painful sport. Yes we will get to see our dead loved ones in the very near future when they come back to life.

“ Katherine, sorry to hear about aunt Rose. She was so much like Alice, such a good, sweet and kind person. She will be missed by all of us. I told Jack but I don't think he remembers her. She is in the Lord's hands now along with Alice, John and David. You will be in our prayers. If you ever come in to see Sue let us know. Love, Jack & Phyllis

“ Katherine, Thinking of you. Aunt Rose is the best and sweetest person I ever knew. I am so proud to have her as my Aunt and thankful she was there to take care of and raise my mother when my mother needed her! Aunt Rose will always be in my thoughts and I will never forget her, we all know she has a special place in Heaven and that's very comforting for those of us who love her so very much! I love you and please keep in touch with us often. Love your cousin, Bryan

“ Katherine, Billy & I are thinking of you. I wish we could be there with you. Even though I did not get to see Aunt Rose often, I will miss her sweet kind face and voice. She was the kindest person I ever knew and I got to be her niece. Love your cousin, Sandy.

“ Kathy, You are in my thoughts and prayers. I know that Daddy was waiting at the Kingdom gate with anticipation for Aunt Rose's arrival. It is hard to let your best and dearest friend go. I know that you already know, Aunt Rose is in a much better place than here. She will be missed very much. We love you and please don't be a stranger. Keep in touch.

“ Dear Kathy, You are in my thoughts and prayers and I share your grief. Rose was a very, very special woman and I was extremely fond of her. She was a beautiful woman in every way. May she be dancing in paradise awaiting the day of reunion. Love, Maureen

“ Dearest Kathryn: I am so sorry for your loss. Rose has always been such a kind and gentle presence. And she was such a "fancy" mom, all dressed up when she would come home from work. I am so glad I was able to get reacquainted with both of you before she left us. Even at our age, it was nice to have someone there to "shush" us when we were giggling!
