“ It is so sad to hear the passing of Rose. Rose was my mother's best friend growing up and they continued their friendship until my mother passed away a couple years ago. A lot of my childhood memories involve the Quesada family when I used to stay at their house. Rest in peace Rose, and say hello to my mother!

“ Rose and Bob have been my parents' neighbors since my childhood.
My friend Geniene and I used to babysit Anisa and Rob.
Rose was always very friendly and outgoing. Their home was always bustling with family activity and visitors. Rose lived working out in her yard, keeping it beautiful.
I always loved Rose's beautiful red hair, and her warm smile.
Her memory will live on in the hearts and memories of not only her family, but of those whose lives were made better for having known her.

“ I have so many WONDERFUL memories of my aunt Rose one that stands out in my mind is when we had my daughters 16th birthday party all my Michigan family came but my aunt Rose was so helpful to me with getting everything to the destination and helping me with the decorations and I had purchased disposable cameras out for everyone to snap pictures for our scrap book. Aunt Rose made that her job making sure all night that she reminded everyone to snap those pictures. That's why we have so many memories of that wonderful evening. Thank.you aunt Rose it's because of you that remember that night so.well. Fly High you were an AWESOME aunt who I love so much. You will definitely be missed so much by my clan. All the way from Georgia. I will forever love you and miss those visits from you and uncle Bob. Go rest now you definitely deserve it . I LOVE YOU KELLI
