“ Dear Judy, Ashley and Ryan, Roy and I worked together for many years as 4-H Agents in the early years of our MSUE careers. I remember him as a kind and loyal friend with a wonderful sense of humor. It is tough to lose someone you love, but my wish is for you to remember the wonderful man that he was and to know that he is loved and respected by many. My sympathy for your loss and best wishes to all of you.

“ His laugh, his compassion, and his wonderful dry sense of humor were among Roy’s gifts. His family was showered by his endless love and he loved telling stories of them. He knew how to balance his life and give family his time better than most people who worked for Extension! He lived well and loved much! Such a wonderful man we were privileged to know and work with! Thank you for sharing Roy with us ... Judy, Ashley and Ryan. Maggie Bethel

“ Judy, Ashley and Ryan my condolences on your loss, though it has been years since I've spoken to Roy his voice and laughter is still very clear in my head. He was loved and he will be missed by many. A good friend helps you to find the important things when you have lost them.... your hope, your courage and your golf ball. Thank you Roy, I'll miss you.
