“ Roy, my man!
It is Julie, “My Dear.” You started the black shoe, white sock trend in the therapy gym. It will forever live on in loving memory of you. I will miss you very much, Roy! Until we meet again. I Know you are double ok in heaven. Save me a seat.
Love you, buddy!

“ Uncle Roy always kept me in check from a young boy to a grown man in the kindest way. He taught me who Chubby Checker was. He taught me proper grammar. He always made me laugh and smile. He was the “Mayor of Alpena”. He had an amazing memory and was a whiz with numbers and dates. Eating Dairy Queen without him will never be the same. His walk with his hands behind his back was the coolest walk and my son Arthur does it too now. I am so blessed to have had Uncle Roy in my life for all these years. I will miss him greatly. We Love you Uncle Roy. Love, Scott, Shaelon, Henry, and Arthur.
