“ I am so very sorry for your loss. My hear hurts for you and praying for strength and comfort for you. Roy was a man to never forget. He was an excellent carpenter (he worked on our remodel on our old house), he did an amazing job of getting our trim even with an uneven house. He wasn't pleased with his job until it was perfect. I really appreciated his workmanship. Brent and I enjoyed our visits to Detroit seeing your dad. One time Brent and I went to Detroit for our anniversary and Brent said "let's see Roy". We ended up spending our whole anniversary weekend with your dad. It wasn't how I thought our weekend would go, but your dad had places he wanted us to see, of course one was the casino, lol. Fond memories of Roy. Brent just passed away unexpectedly December 5th. I'm planning on being there at Fraser's the 27th.

“ Everybody had good times with Roy, and I was one of them. God bless his two daughters who I got to know when Roy worked on our house in Plymouth. I've been thinking a lot about him. Last time I spoke with him was about three years ago and haven't been able to reach him since. Steve Correll
