“ Dear Family of Roy Walters, I'm sorry for the loss of your loved one. Time can just pass you by because your world has stopped. A void that can never be filled is what death can cause. What has helped me to cope with the loss is the wonderful promise of God, please note what the Bible says: "He (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." (Revelation 214)

“ My Sincere condolences to the Walters family. Mr. Walters will truly be missed. I did not know Mr. Walters or the family. What helps me to cope in such distressing times is God's Inspired word the Holy Bible. Just as a car needs a manual to keep up the maintenance we humans need guidance and a reliable hope from our creator. At: (John chapter 5 verses 25 thru 29) Jesus said: "Most truly I say to YOU, The hour (at God's appointed time) is coming, and it is now, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who have given heed will live. For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted also to the Son to have life in himself. And he has given him authority to do judging, because Son of man he is. Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (In Jehovah's memory) will hear his voice (Jesus) and come out.....Please contact any of Jehovah's Witnesses in your area or visit our official website www.jw.org

“ Uncle Roy was always friendly and loving. I'll never forget the family trips to camp Dearborn, and also the trip to Curtis in the U.P., where the fishing was very bad and of the whole group, Roy was the only one all week who caught a walleye, gaining the title of "walleye warrior". My grandma Grace, who will be 102 this year, was very sad to hear the news. Uncle Roy called her once or twice a week. I also listened to many phone conversations (on speaker) he had with dad. He was very sharp, funny and kind right up to the end.
