“ *I would like to give my most sincere condolences to the entire family of the woman who has always shown me kindness and warmth since the day I met her over 12 years ago. RuthAnn you were a very nice and warm person and I wish you nothing but happiness in heaven. And I know you will tell God to give extra strength to your family in dealing with your passing, Although it's very hard for everyone to deal with I know you will be watching over everyone until it's time to see you again. God Bless You RuthAnn. With much love and respect,
