“ Deepest Condolences to the Ruth Mae Wooley Family. Please take comfort in the words found in the Bible. And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.-(Acts 24:15).

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Ruth will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Ruth again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Ruth seems like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Grandma, It's hard to believe that you're gone, but I'm so happy you're no longer suffering. You were a great Grandma and I appreciate everything you've done for me over the years. I'll never forget going with you in your car to the $1 store and picking out a toy, playing pick up sticks at your house, beating up "The Honkey Tonk Man" in my wrestling figures and you wondering why I was picking on Elvis, and of course Christmas. Christmas at your house was always a lot of fun and nobody seemed to love it more than you. It was always so cool that when the gifts were done around the tree that yours would come down and fill the room with even more joy. I'm so happy that you were able to meet Lilly before you left for Heaven too. I so badly wanted you to meet a great grand baby and I'm so happy that you were able to. The pictures we got of you holding her and the smile on your face is one that I will treasure all my life. I look forward to showing Lilly who you were and telling her stories about the times that Casey and I spent with you. Enjoy the time with your husband and please have an eye on your family from above. Watch over Bob, Sharon and Chuck and know that we all love you. Rest In Peace Grandma.
