“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the Sadasivan family. I had the opportunity to meet uncle twice and the one thing I clearly remember about him was his beautiful smile! He was loved very much by his family and I know that today their hearts are full of sorrow, tears and grief. May the pain of grief give way for them to remember his love...to remember his legacy...and forever to remember his smiling face!

“ I had the pleasure of working with Dr. Sadasivan @ the Development Ctrs. He was always kind, soft spoken and very compassionate to his patients. What I remember most, is how driven he was and age was never a factor. He would always be at work with bells on and a smile on his face. I'll miss you Dr. Sadasivan may you R.I.P!!!! To the family I will keep you in my prayers at this difficult time.
