“ To all my Loftus cousins, I really loved seeing you all!! Just wish it was for a better reason! Even though we are miles apart you are never far from my heart!! Think of all the great times and laughs we all shared with Sally and her sister my mom always brought us closer together!! I feel your loss more than you know and can only say she is in a far better place and want's nothing but happiness for you all! You all take care and I hope to see you all soon!!!! Your brother from another mother, Chris
