“ Sandy was such a loving, caring and giving person. She was always helping those in need. She enjoyed putting a smile on people's faces. She always put others before herself. I really enjoyed our many conversations. I'm sure there were many angels who carried her to her enteral home. May the Lord embrace your family during this most difficult time. Rev. David Pniewski

“ Sandy was such a great lady. I always loved going into her shop and talking with her. My daughter and I loved her shop and bought lots of webkins and gifts for friends. What a smart and kind lady. A blessing to us all. I loved going to Downtown Farmington to go visit her shop and get all my greeting cards. What a lovely lady. She will be missed by so many.

“ So sorry to hear of Sandy’s passing. She was a sweet lady. Her shop was next to mine in the Village Mall in Farmington. We had so much fun together sharing ideas, doing promotions and chatting between customers. She loved her shop and chatting with customers. People knew her as the angel lady and she was an angel. She will be sorely missed. Bless her heart. Diane Rothman

“ Sandy was a truly wonderful lady. A blessing in the lives of so many. She was the lead to the Angels Collectors club, a club she influenced my mom to also join. My mom adored this group and Sandy, as did I, there were so many fun lunches when the group got together. Sandy was always very kind, a true angel on earth herself. I feel very blessed to be able to know her and her family.

“ I will always remember the "Power Ranger" breakfast you made for the boys and the cupboard you had with the special treats! Your nickname became Grandma "Candy" instead of Grandma Sandy. We love you and we know you are with Grandpa.

Love, Kelly Seychel
