Sandy had fun marching with Plymouth Garden Club in the 2011 Plymouth 4th of Parade.

We just found out about Sandy. Our Father in Heaven will reward her for the great kindness that she had given to us. We had no where to go and Sandy stepped up twice. We love her and Jim. We hold them both in high regards. Eternally grateful to both Jim and Sandy. The S boys!

“ Sandy always found a way to laugh through the tough parts of life. She was such a good friend to my mother and showed such kindness to my daughter. My thoughts are with all those that loved and will miss her.

“ Sandy was a very delightful friend. We enjoyed her company greatly in our Gourmet Dining Group. She was an innovative cook and hostess! Her love of reading was a connection as we exchanged good books and reviews. We had fun together at "Tea" in the Plymouth Historical Museum as well as other events. She will be greatly missed.
