“ I'm so sorry I missed Sandy's service. I just learned of her passing. I wanted to share a nice story, I was very close with my Uncle Noel Litsenberger, one of Sandy's many first cousins. When he died his family chose not to have a service of any kind. Since both of my parents were already gone, I especially felt the loss of this family connection. A week or so after he died, I got a very I unexpected call from Sandy, I had lost touch with my parents cousins once my parents died. She told me she wanted me to know how sorry she was to hear about Noel and to let me know that he often spoke of how much he had loved the closeness he and I shared. And how proud he was of the family I had and the life I'd made as an adult. I'll never forget that kindness.

“ Dear Bob and family, I so enjoyed all the time I spent with Sandy. She was so kind to me all the years I was with her. Also, I took most of my paychecks home on a hanger. I wish you the best
