“ *I was very sad to learn about Sandy's death. I am so very sorry for your loss.
I worked with her as a Social Worker @ Michigan Cancer Foundation, many years ago. We met at a Social Work in Home Health Care meeting.
Sandy was a gentle, kind spirit and an excellent, hard-working Social Worker.
I just returned from a special trip to Paris. I lit a candle in her memory, in the Notre Dame Cathedral. She will be missed. Peace, Barb.*

“ *Dear Cecile and Family,
I want you to know what a beacon Sandy has been in my life. She always encouraged, empowered, and supported. I don't have any hysterically funny stories to share, but I can tell you that the time I spent with her has always been rewarding and meaningful. I have missed her so much this last year, in a very different way. I know that she is looking down and thanking all who knew her for loving her. And it is that love that makes me smile thinking of her.*

You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Sheila

“ Dear Mrs. Wilson, Stef, Dennis, and Cindy,
How saddened and stunned I was to read about Sandy's passing. My heartfelt sympathies to all of you at this very sorrowful time. We just had funeral services for Larry's brother on 10/14 at the young age of 63. Mrs. Wilson, your children were taken way too soon before their time. Bless you and your family and may in my lifetime I have one half of your strength and faith. Stef, I would appreciate and address for you folks.
Sincerely, Camille
