

Sarah May Agpalo Feliz

November 17, 1963 - January 16, 2025

Sarah May Agpalo Feliz went to be with the Lord on January 16, 2025, at the age of 61. She was born in Manila, Philippines on November 17, 1963, with parents that taught her and her siblings to have a purposeful life centered around their faith in God. With the eagerness of obtaining knowledge, from elementary school through high school and college she was the valedictorian of each institution. While completing her Physical Therapy degree in college, she met her soulmate and after marrying they began a family. With drive and determination, they both decided to move to the United States and make a home to raise their daughter where they settled in Michigan in a city called Westland. Sarah being a super woman with God on her side, was a devoted wife, nurturing mother, dear friend to many, exceptional Physical Therapist and was a phenomenal Lola (grandmother). She continued to help others when needed but her helpfulness poured into her work as a Physical Therapist. She enjoyed salsa dancing, gardening, political rhetoric, cooking for her family and belly laughing out loud. But one of her greatest joys in life was caring for her Apo (granddaughter) with her husband. Sarah will be remembered by her faith in God with a sacrificing soul. Her strong will continued to pour through out her life having a life well lived. Loving wife of Jose B. Feliz. Dear mother of Marjorie (Nick Seymour) Feliz. Cherished grandmother of Laura May Seymour. Beloved sister of Leah (Reynaldo) Jornales, the late Joselito Agpalo, and the late Annaliza Agpalo. Proud daughter of the late Jose and Laura Agpalo. “ Dear Feliz Family,
I was deeply saddened to hear of Sarah’s passing. She was a genuinely caring person whose smile was just so sweet. Sometimes it’s hard to understand and fully accept that loved ones and dear friends must be taken from us. But I hope you can eventually find some comfort in knowing that you were part of a special persons life.
Please know that I am holding you in thought and prayer.
Love and God Bless,
Melissa Kendrick
