“ I met Scott 56 years ago when his brother was to marry my sister. There were a few family occasions when we shared company, but our friendship and family connection really began in FL. When my husband and I discovered Scott and Laura were living in FL, not far away, we got together again and again. They returned to Michigan. We visited them in Plymouth and Glenn. They came to FL. My memories of our ‘fun times’ are extensive. We traveled to Vermont for our nieces wedding. This was Scott’s turf from younger days so he was our tour guide. He navigated us to eateries, landmarks and shops...our favorite things.

Scott ALWAYS. Played the very best music. Sometimes dinner music and sometimes creative expression. Music while we danced....probably due to Scott’s large pour of vino.

I could rattle on, but...

Picture this:

While sitting at Irelands Inn, Ft Lauderdale, outside, on the beach, perfect weather, sipping wine listening to Scott create stories about the sunbathers on the sand. We would interject on occasion, but SOTT WAS THE MASTER.

laughter prevailed all afternoon. That is my favorite memory.

I’m sure my husband has shown Scott the ropes and they are enjoying “HAPPY HOUR’ pain free. Blessings to all. Sarah Barbee “ Laura, I'm so sorry for your loss. The Peralta's will say a prayer for you. I truly enjoyed knowing Scott. Every time I had the opportunity to chat with him, he was always so kind and engaging — kind of like we were old friends that could so easily restart a conversation from times past, even if it been months or years since we had last spoke. I will miss him and I will smile when I think about our times together.

“ I sat in front of Scott from seventh to eleventh grade, so I knew him well during that time. So many memories, most involving laughter and dancing. He was such a dynamic person; I am sure he will be greatly missed. May God bring comfort and peace to his family.

“ I will forever remember the incredible evenings spent sharing meals, fine Chilean swill (and other varietals) and great music, particularly, Van Morrison's On Hyndford Street, from his Hymns to the Silence album. Scott introduced us to this amazing song and it became a signature way to close out the night. Scott this ones for you. I pray you are now enjoying "hymns to the silence" in a whole new way! <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UcqKqd2Mjp0>

“ I can't describe the feeling of loss I have. Scott and Laura shared so many memories with me and my family. From road trips, sailing adventures, visits with them in Florida. Vacation in New Orleans, Annapolis, and other east coast spots. It would take an entire book to recall and write about all of the good times we shared. He was much loved and will be dearly missed.

“ In the quietest of moments, we'll find a smile, Remembering the times, that made life worthwhile, For the neighbour we've lost, the laughter we shared, In the moments of joy, when you truly cared. We'll share the tales, the jokes you'd make, The memories of laughter, we'll fondly partake, Through the tears and the sorrow, we'll find a way, To cherish the humor, that once brightened our day. Laughter across the fence, a memory so dear, A tribute to the neighbour, we once held near, In the midst of our grief, let laughter ring, For the joy you brought, forever will cling
