“ Selma was a wonderful friend. I only knew her about 2 years, but she brightened my nights at work. Selma was always happy to see me when I arrived (unless she was sleeping), which made going to work not so bad. We kept each other company on the nights she could'nt sleep. I will miss you selma. I'm so sorry for your loss Lila, you are in my prayers. Beth

“ Dear Lila and Adnan, I'm so sorry to hear about your mother passing. As you know, she was such a significant figure in my life during the Plymouth years. I spent so much time at your house during high school, especially between the hours of 11PM and 2AM – my Aunt Selma was a real night owl, like me! Your family was the first in the tri-state area to own a microwave and Selma would always generously offer me a midnight snack in the late hours. And naturally, there were always dozens of doughnuts around - a teenage boy's dream come true. Your mother had such a big smile and even bigger heart. She loved and embraced life to the fullest. She was a blessing in my life and in the lives of anyone who was fortunate enough to know her. I have missed her over the years and I will miss her more now. Much love, Marty Jabara

“ Adnan & Lila It was great sadness that we heard of the passing of Aunt Selma. We are comforted in knowing that she is now with Uncle Joe. My family has been blessed to have known Aunt Selma and although she will be missed she will not be forgotten. She touched and influenced our lives and to this day she is one of the most kindhearted and generous persons we have come to know. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Hassan & Kathy & Family

“ I think that the loss of a mother is one of the most difficult things that we endure in life. It seems that not so long along I went through what you must be going through now. I share in your loss and remember that the pain will ease but the loving memories will last forever.

“ Dear Lila, The passing of your mom cannot be compared to anything else in life. I cannot begin to imagine the sadness you must feel. All the memories you and I shared as teenagers with your loving mother can only be understood by the two of us. Please give my best to your brother and the rest of your family. Although I cannot attend the service, my heart, soul and spirit is with you. God rest her soul. I love you and God be with you as you get through the next few months. I am sorry for your loss. Love, Lila Karoub

“ Dear Lila and family, I will never forget the day I met Selma, she sure had a personality you just couldn't help but love! She truly cared for all the people in her life and loved to joke around and make people smile. Selma will be greatly missed by so many people, after transferring from her building, I did stop by a few times to say hi, Stacey and I always talked about how much we missed seeing her every day. I'm thankful I had the opportunity to get to know Selma and her beautiful family. Lila- you were an amazing daughter and Selma loved you so very much! You were the light in her life. May the Lord bless you all and may Selma's memories bring you comfort and joy. With love to you all, Michelle CRA from Trilogy

“ Back in 1974 when you and Uncle Yousef visited us in Cairo Egypt for the first time and since then you have captured the hearts of us with your kindness and love, it was always you who cared about your family in Egypt more than us in Egypt, we will never forget your lovely memories in the states or in Egypt. I miss you so much, may God rest your sole in peace. Tarek

“ Selma had a way of making everything and everybody she touched better than they were before. I'm sure that heaven is a better place today, because she is there making it so. As the mother of my dearest friend Lila I have many strong and vivid memories of Selma. One that stands out as an example of how broad her love and compassion reached was when my mother passed at the age of 44 of ovarian cancer. When I returned home from the hospital there sat Selma waiting to comfort me with hugs; she had no way of knowing when I would return home and I have no idea how long she patiently waited for me, but she did. Always feel my love and kisses; I know I will always feel yours. I know we'll see each other again ... Jim

“ Today I lost not only my Mother but my best friend. She was the shining star in all of my familys lives. Her sudden and tragic death is such a loss to all of us. The only comfort we have from her passing is that she is now with my beloved Father whom we lost 28 years ago. She missed him every day since he left us. I misss you both but you are now together again.
