“ Our thoughts and prayers are with my uncles family and close loved ones. Although my uncle died fairly young, he lived a full and happy life. He always had that Ramirez smile and a warm spirit about him is what I remember about him. He loved my mother Epifania who passed back in 1984 at age 42, he felt her lose when he would visit here in San Antonio. To my aunt Irma and my cousins, may the God of all peace give you comfort and joy in this difficult time of mourning of your husband and father, but, remember, joy comes in the morning and He will see you through this time of sorrow. May we meet sometime in the future and God bless all of you.

“ Sesario - you were more than a brother-in-law to me. You were so special too the entire family. I can still hear your jokes and your laughter. Rev. 21 tells us your new home has streets of pure gold and the gates are made of pearl. How awesome is that! I love you brother and will miss you. Rest in peace my brother.
