“ We all miss you a lot, including me. I know i didn't have much of a relationship / bond with you, but I still enjoyed having all of those moments, when you held me for the first time, when i met Max for the first time (I really miss him too), and so many more.
Lots of love from me and the whole family.
<3 , your youngest granddaughter, Karley.
I really love and miss you to this day, and I wish you could still be here with all of us.
I also love and miss you to the moon and back.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by Jehovah God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ John, I am so sorry for your loss. May the Lord our God instill peace and comfort in your heart. He is the rock upon which we stand. He is our comforter, and our redeemer. 2 Corinthians 5:6-8 So we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord. For we walk by faith, not by sight. We are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord.

“ To Cathy and family: We hope that the words of the Bible that say "Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted" will be especially true for you. Mourning a loss is not easy, however, I hope it is made more bearable by your faith. Knowing that death marks a beginning, not just an end, is one of the most comforting principles that faith teaches. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all as you mourn your loss.
