“ Our deepest condolences to the Coll Family during this time of mourning. Sharon had always greeted me with a warm smile and laughter, mostly at a Susan’s expense. Even though, the last several years Sharon struggled with back pain, she endured to the end. Her endless struggle was an inspiration, her love and devotion to Jerry is timeless and the love she shared for her children, grandchildren and great grand children will live in each of their hearts. For now the tears will flow but soon, on another day the memories and laughter will live on.
