“ One of my favorite memories of Sharron is from a long time ago... On August 13, 1969, Casey Scott and I were living in NYC and decided to get married – 10 days later in Detroit. My family was already in the Detroit area, and his family, including his dad who was a minister and would marry us, would come from other parts of the Midwest. We figured we would borrow the church for an hour or so that Saturday, and that would be it.

Sharron, however, would have none of that! She took charge and told her clueless soon-to-be in-laws just what to do – get the rings, buy a white dress and show up at her house after the ceremony... She put on an entire wedding reception at their home for both families – complete with decorations, lots of great food, and best of all – an actual 2 tier Wedding Cake! It even had the little figures of the bride and groom on top!

The marriage didn't last (although he is the father of my kids and a good friend) but I still have the little bride and groom, and the memory of my kind, generous sister-in-law, who went out of her way to make that day so special, and welcome me into the fold.

There were many times over the years when Sharron welcomed me and my family and friends – always with generosity, kindness, and laughter. She will be missed by all of us.

“ In loving memory of Sharron, my best friend and sister , whom I shared so many wonderful times and memories. She was the best sister in the world. She was such a blessing in my life and I can't emagine my life without her in it . You will remain in my heart forever. Love you Sandy
