“ To the Family of: Shawn Michael Teefey. I'd like to extend sincere condolences to each of you. Although not acquainted with the family, we share the pain of death in all families of the earth, unfortunately. Have you ever wondered is death the end of it all? Why does this question arise? Because isn't true that we grow old, get sick, then die? why? please read Romans 5:12. We are not left in the lurch because God by means of his only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ will undo death, sickness, and old-age, soon. "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."-Acts 24:15. How can we be so sure? Because Jesus said, I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith In me, even though he dies, will come to life."-John 11:25. So, we can stake our lives on it.

“ I am so happy for u even tho you are not here physically with the ones who love you and care about you but you are always going to be here no matter what u are not in anymore pain and sufferring and for just one reason I am happy that god decided to take you. I love you and you will always no it no matter what happenned we always had each other you were not only an awesome daddy but you were my best friend my compainion and my homie to grow old with my EVERYTHING I loved rolling over and looking into your big beautiful blue eyes and saying that I love you and hearing it back but now I just don't hear it back but I know that you hear me and for that I thank u for spending all those precious memories and special moments that we had while you were on this earth. Don't worry I will take good care of the girls for you and do things right and make you so proud of me and once my time on earth here is done I will see you up in Shangra-la. I love you more than words could explain and once again you WILL be truely missed but NEVER forgotten.....infinity of hugs and kisses to you ever second of the day for the rest of my life.....
