“ She-Rock, cant believe its been 1 year. Damn, Im not suposto count you said, but ok, well, I did. I seen a concert on cable yesterday from Neil Young. It reminded me of me and you wayyyy back in the 70's locking our boyfriends out of your mom and dads house and them beg for our company, as we smoked a joint. We would play Neil Young in my car and not care about a thing. We were invincible, we were young, we were younger than our kids age ! I miss those days sheila, I miss our youth, I miss you bitching, but u were always right. Gotta say, even when you were so sick, you NEVER complained...you used to say "we have to live life, on life's terms"...i used to get pissed at you, but u were always right. Today, I take with me your rememberance, your strength (that gets me thru), and I take your memory of the bestest friend a biotch ever had. I could NEVER forget you, you instilled in me..what i never had as far as the program. I started to get tears in my eyes remembering our youth, and you, but I ..as u would say...."bucked up and dealed". Thank you for your AI_anon wisdom even to this day. You remind me that even tho life gets hard, you gotta deal, just like you did, You never let them see u sweat, I respect and admire you for your strength, that even today I can draw upon. Rest in peace my best friend...and know that I am with u in spirit, until my time comes, and when it does, I will go out with strength, and dignity, just like u did. I love you gurl..... Your partner, always, in crime....Kim...Sheila..your a rock star !

“ Hey She-Rock, Happy Fathers day !Know, I know you are a woman, but you were both Mother and father to your children, and I beleive you deserve a tribut on this. You were an awesome mother, and father, you raised 4 beautiful, intellegent children. You put your WHOLE self in your kids, and it sjhows, cause they are responsible, smart, and well adjusted and strong young ladies and men. You did what you said you would do, they all graduated, work, and have great morals and values. Your dedication to your 12 step program shows how much it, and you have grown to be your best, and the kids are proof ! I so miss you, but you had to go, and I accpet that, because you taught me that we have to live life, o lifes terms. Thank you for that. If your kids see this, and want to contact me, they can at any time. Im sure your Mom is still kicking ass, must be the Vinegar she told us about, and good clean living ! I love you my friend, I still feel your presence, cause you were larger than life itself. Keep on rockin the heavens, Im sure they never knew what they were getting in to with you, but I know they ned you. Your friend, Kim

“ Hey she-rock, Was just thinking about you. Wanted to know what you were up to, I miss talking to you, long conversations about Kids, Men, and Getting old ! I know wherever you are, you have found peace, and are pain free. I wonder if you know how much you have helped us all be better persons, and if you know that your spirit lives on in your kids. They are wonderful, they had you as a mom. Until we meet again...Kim

“ Hey Sheila, Its gonna be weird not to talk to you anymore, we have been friends since 1974. I cant think of a more supportive and caring friend. You never failed to remember me on my birthday, or any holiday. You always let me rattle off on my problems, but never let me feel sorry for myself. You gave me the best mothering tips ! I'll never forget sitting together looking out the picture windows at Karmanos Center, sipping coffee, waiting for the doctor to call you. We talked a lot about life, and death, all the years we got to be here. We talked about the good days, and the bad days. We were sure we would beat this together, and go celebrate someplace afterwards. I never dreamed I had to hold your hand, and watch you slip from life, to death. But I am glad to have had a friend like you, we had so much history together, growing and learning together. Thank you for that. I will miss you down here, but we talked about this, I'll see you up there when it is my turn, and I know you'll be waiting for me, to show me the ropes ! Tell my dad and grampa I said Hello. Your partner in crime....Kim
