“ Sorry to hear of Shirley's passing. She was the first neighbor I met when I moved onto Amelia in 1974. Hugged her goodbye when she moved to Canton. Such a wonderful person. She will be missed by many.

“ *Just a length'ning of the shadows,
Just a short'ning of the breath,
Just a graying of the features ---
Is this dying? Is it death?
Just a rest for weary footsteps,
Just a folding of tired hands,
Just a glimpse across the river
Where the Holy City stands.
Just a closing of the eyelids,
Just a hush, why mourn and weep?
So it is the Heavenly Father
Giveth his beloved sleep.
Death? As, yes, we call it dying,
When six feet of earth is thrust
O'er the temple of our loved ones,
And dust returns to dust.
But when all mists have vanished,
And we meet on yon' bright shore,
We shall know it was the entrance
Unto life evermore*

So sorry to learn of your loss. I remember you from your days at MNB. The above words were used in my great grandmothers funeral many years ago and I hope they bring you some solace.

“ Dear Boothroyd Family, Dear Killion Family, I am so sorry for your loss of Mrs. Boothroyd. I just wanted to share some spiritually encouraging news for you all. At (John 5:28,29) this scripture can be of much encouragement because we see here that our loved ones have a great chance to live again. Also death was not something that God purposed for humans, Dear Shirley Boothroyd is just in a temporary sleep. I hope that this has brought your family some encouragement and happiness.
