“ Shirley has been my friend for more than 30 years. We met at Hilltop Church of the Nazarene, where she was a faithful member and supporter. I was so proud of her when she made the trips to China to teach English to teachers. What a strong and independent lady with a tender heart!! And a bit feisty! The last time that Dave and I visited her, I don't think she recognized us, so I love the picture that was selected for this memorial site. That is the way I will remember her, with the beautiful smile. I am so sorry that I didn't know about her passing until after the memorial service but please know, Susan, that your family is in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My children had Shirley as their first grade teacher at Fisher School in Redford. She was one of the best! Big on phonics! We stayed in touch over the years as she went through her cancer journey. When I went to work at Angela, I was so sorry to see her name show up on our patient list. Please accept my sympathies.
