“ Shirley's family, I am Mary Spatafore's daughter, Roseann Kozian. My mother lives across the street from Shirley. Mom is 89 years old and can barely walk. Shirley always came to mom's house and carried her chair and helped her go outside to the fire so mom could visit with the neighbors. Since mom is homebound she really appreciated when Shirley came to visit her. She was a very special neighbor and friend and she will be greatly missed. Mom and I extend our deepest sympathy to you. Sincerely, Roseann Kozian

“ Rhonda,Jpe, ALyssa and Joey all our love! The Oertel's In the bulb there is a flower; in the seed an apple tree; In cocoons a hidden promise: butterflies will soon be free! In the cold and snow of winter, there's a spring that waits to be, Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see. There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody; There's a dawn in every darkness, bringing hope to you and me. From the past will come the future; what it holds a mystery, Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see. In our end is our beginning; in our time infinity; In our doubt there is believing; in our life eternity, In our death a resurrection; at the last, a victory, Unrevealed until it's season, something God alone can see. by Natalie Sleeth
