“ RIP Aunt Shirley. You were always a complicated lady . I remember holidays on Evergreen. As a kid your white living room, with the plastic furniture covers, as kids never made much sense.LOL. Playing dominoes was always a challenge, you just didn't get it. I have a number of things you made me over the years that I cherish. Give all our loved ones real big hugs we all long for. Love Sharon

“ Aunt Shirley, I will miss our bi-weekly zoom calls we had these past few months....you always lit up when you saw us, sticking out your tongue like the sassy woman you always were. Rest in Peace
