“ We will all be able to see our loved ones again when Jesus Christ brings them back. (John 5:28, 29) Soon there will be no more pain or suffering as it speaks about in Revelation 21:4. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."-Revelation 21:4 This is something we can all look forward to. Hope everyone feels better. =)

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Shirley will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Shirley again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Shirley was truly a great lady and so full of love and compassion (as was Bill). She helped me out a lot when I was struggling and always kept her positive attitude. I have so many fond memories of Shirley and Bill and I was blessed to have been a part of their lives. I will always remember them. My heartfelt condolences to the family.
With love, Tim McCarthy

“ Shirley was faithful to God and the people in Wayne County. For years, she organized birthday parties at the County Family Center to support and nurture the development of hundreds of disadvantaged children. She also served on the Altar Guild and as a Communion Server for many years. Rest in peace, dear one! May you rest in the arms of an angel.
