“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com
Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ I am so very sorry for your loss I to know the pain of losing a family member to young I remember Tommy as a little boy running around the neighborhood so full of life when my nephew passed away he came to funeral home and was so kind to my sister and said such nice things we never know why these things happen all we can do is to to carry on and take the memories we have of him with us may his soul rest in peace

“ You have lost a loved one , I know how you feel please accept my sympathy. I have lost loved ones too death took both my parents I understand your grief sorrow and loneliness and I have a message of comfort for you, there is a place called heaven and if Thomas trusted Christ for salvation he is in heaven now. The bible says that for those who have trusted Christ, to be absent from the body is to be present in the lord in heaven. Thomas was taken to soon from this earth he will live on in the hearts of his family and friends and in his sons heart, for all who knew him for all the lives he's touched cherish your memories and relish in the lives of loved ones still here for life is short and we never know when the lord will send for us. Rest in peace my friend. DANIEL EVANS.
