“ I'm Stan's baby sister, Lisa. We would like to thank all of Stan's friends and family for the great stories they shared and for being in his life. His death was unexpected, and he was suffering. He was a special guy who oozed compassion. He loved people and cared deeply for others. In that regard, he will always be a role model for me. He will be greatly missed.

R.I.P. big bro (not the Momma!). Love you alway and forever, Lisa.

My name is June Heath, I worked with and knew Stanley over 30 years at Detroit Edison. He was such a nice gentleman, never heard him say anything bad about anyone. Stanley belong to the Breakfast Club, since retiring a group of about 20 of us would meet once a month to share stories of what our lives are like since retiring. We will miss Stanley, may he rest in peace.

Rick Cofell, Stan would have been on cloud nine after that ride in the patrol car! He was big into the neighborhood watch and was a Police Reserve Officer for a short time. Thank you for sharing that memory.

June Heath, not only did he not speak poorly of anyone, he never complained about the excruciating pain he must have been in. He trusted that there is a better life after this one and in that one, he hoped he'd be bowling his butt off! And eating breakfasts with you fine people. Thanks to the whole group for attending his funeral, he would have loved that. With much appreciation, Lisa Kowal.
