“ My thoughts and prayers go out to your families and especially Jerry, Terry and Marianne may he R.I.P. What a Wonderful Neighbor I had in Delray I had 26 years while growing up. Plus he taught me my very first swear word, (around 5 yrs old) the word "SHIT" while hammering a board to the wooden stairs of the front porch and he hit his thumb with the hammer! Went home and kept saying shit, shit ,shit and my mom asked me where I learned that and I said Tata and she only said do not use that word please. Ironically he was in my thoughts the past several weeks and I was just thinking a cpl days ago of writing and asking you and/or Terry how your dad was? Perhaps it was his spirit trying to contact me we'll never know. I do know for sure; I'll now have my two best neighbors to say goodbye too on my reg outbound basis when leaving Holy Cross Cemetery while taking care of my Grandparents and Aunt/Uncles graves there through out the years to come and as long as I'm alive! When I have passed and / or stopped by your moms grave, I always say, "hey Helena Dymie Cave"! Hopefully this brings some smiles/ memories to you and your family in this sorrowful time plus the fact he was to me a Great Friend! R.I.P. your Delray neighbor; Richard (Ricky) Kulpa
