“ *Barb and Marcia,
I just now heard of your mom's passing and want to extend my condolences on your loss. I remember your mom as a great seamstress and ever-present helper with the scouts. I am sure you will miss her greatly. Take comfort in your memories of her long and generous life.*

“ *Time like this make us sad. But, there is "a time to weep." (Ecclesiastes 3:4). Yet you can have the hope of seeing your love one again. Jesus said, "Do not let your hearts be troubled." –(John 14:27) Sometimes we may feel paralyzed by a tragedy such as this. Remember, God can help you to endure any and every problem you may face. He will give you " power beyond what is normal" to go from one day to the next. (2Corinthian 4:7)
You have my deepest sympathy.*
