“ Dear family of Stephanie, my heart is truly broken by your great loss. Losing a loved one is extremely painful, but there is an especially sharp pain when a life is cut too short. I have found the promises found in God's word the Bible to be of great comfort in my times of sorrow. Jehovah God promises that soon: "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Just imagine how wonderful life will be when we are reunited with our loved ones right here on a paradise earth.-Psalms 37:10,11,29

“ My thoughts are with your family. I knew Stephanie and the entire Richter family many many years ago. I saw the picture of her and instantly remembered that smile, she hasn't changed a bit since we were young kids. Stephanie was my age, its hard to grasp a young life being taken too soon. Take care of yourselves, my heart goes out to you all. I hope to see you all again sometime. - Debbie Zelek's daughter, Celina

“ It was a joy to have Stephanie in her first Clinical rotation at St Joes. She was full of POSITIVE energy and a 'can do' attitude. She had a very positive influence on my group of students that semester. She was a big part of the reason that I will so fondly remember that Clinical above others! She was leaning toward Hospice Nursing as a career. I love her and will miss her very much.

“ Steph, I miss you so much. You were my best friend, my sister, and everything I could have asked for as an inspiration in my life. I wish I could have told you how much I loved you and how much you mean to me. I know you're in a much happier place where you will be cherished and loved just as much as you are down here. I don't think I've ever told you how much you mean to me and its so hard to let you go. You will be in my heart forever. To Kelly, Brian, Rachel and Chelsea, I love you so much and I'm so sorry for your loss. Brian and Kelly, you raised three beautiful daughters and they have all made impacts on our lives. Thank you for bringing steph into this world because she has impacted my life so greatly. Thank you everyone for the kind words and remembrances. Coe and Lat will miss their Aunt Teffy.

“ I only had the opportunity to meet Stephanie once, at Chelsea and Ray's going away party to leave Houston and return home to Michigan. I was lucky enough to hang out and get to know Stephanie that whole night, which I am very grateful for. Her love showed through when I learned that she flew down from Michigan to help Chelsea and Ray back up all of their belongings for the move and clean their entire condo while they were at work. I was going through a rough time that night, and even though we had just met, she was right there with me, already acting as a great and supportive friend. Stephanie, you will be greatly missed by all of your friends and family. Praying for strength for the entire circle of those that loved you.

“ I hold nothing but fun, happy memories of Stephanie- she has an amazing spirit that I know will continue on even after here on earth. She found the reason to smile in every situation and was always looking to lift people up. I'm honored to say she was a part of my life for a long time- throughout high school, college and after. When I think about all the great times our girlfriends had together, we were all so lucky to have her and call her a friend. “ Our Thoughts and prayers go out to everyone touched by this tragedy... we leave you with words of Henry Van Dyke

*"I am standing upon the seashore.
A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean.
She is an object of beauty and strength,
and I stand and watch until at last she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come down to mingle with each other.
Then someone at my side says,
" There she goes! "
Gone where?
Gone from my sight . . . that is all.
She is just as large in mast and hull and spar
as she was when she left my side and just as able to bear her load of living freight to the place of destination.
Her diminished size is in me, not in her.
And just at the moment
when someone at my side says,
" There she goes! "
there are other eyes watching her coming . . .
and other voices ready to take up the glad shout . . .
" Here she comes! "*

“ I haven't seen Stephanie in years but we spent almost every day together of the 1999/2000 school year at Ferris as pledge sisters for the AZD sorority, and in that time she became a best friend and someone I'd always be connected with. Her crazy sense of humor and infectious smile played a part in the making of so many memories in one of the best years of my life. We always had a blast together and I've always missed the times we shared. I wish we would've stayed in touch more but thru Facebook we were still in each other's life at a distance and I could still see that smile and warm spirit. I will miss her dearly!
