“ Sir, though I never knew you, I have heard so many great things about you. You were no doubt one of the kindest and most loving men that ever lived. I have recently come to experience the same joy and much of the same pain that you experienced. To share your own quote, "Only those who have truly loved will understand." Godspeed, Sir

Please text me 4199668905 so I can speak with you.*

“ WE REMEMBER THEM

At the rising of the sun and its going down, We remember them. At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, We remember them. At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of autumn, We remember them. At the beginning of the year and when it ends, We remember them. As long as we live, they too will live. They are part of us. We remember them.

“ Dan and family - I was stunned to see this in the paper. I am truly sorry for your loss. Although I never knew Stephen, I have known and worked with Dan for some years. I remember Dan speaking proudly of his brother Stephen and his career path. It was endearing to see.

I know the loss and pain you are going through as I lost my sister when she was 21. It is a terrible pain. Know that my thoughts, prayers and sincerest sympathies are with you and your family Dan.

“ Dear Michelle,
Words cannot express the sadness I feel about the death of your son, Stephen. Yet, it pales in comparison to your and your family's loss. Know that during this difficult time we are praying for you. May time allow you to bask in the glow of Stephen's memory. This is my prayer. Henny Marske
