“ Steve, I will miss you. I am sorry it took your funeral to learn how you were changing your life. You kept that part of your life away from us and for that I am truly sad. We should have been closer as a family, but it is a blessing to know that you made a difference in so many other lives. Rest in peace. We love you and miss you.

“ We are just so sorry we learned more about you in death than in life. We are very happy to hear about you from your friends. My Dad always had faith in you Stevie and I'd like to think he'll be waiting for you to help you along in your new life.

Steve you are still my best friend. Sorry I lost contact with you later in life. You were always there when I needed a friend. I did not know about your passing until it was too late. We enjoyed many good times in life together. I will see you again someday . Your best friend Jim “ Steve, I know that we weren't close as adults, and we were not all that close as we were growing up. but we all will miss you. You made our family more interesting, and as we found out were a great friend to many others. I am so glad to know that you made such a difference to many people. You did make your life worth living every day by the time and things that you gave to others even when you didn't have much yourself. I am proud to be your brother, rest in peace and know that god would be proud of you too.
