“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Stephen will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Stephen again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Stephen seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Betty and I were very sorry to hear the news about Butch. I was visiting my dad (Walter) and Uncle Ray up North when he received your call. It really came as a shock as my dad had evidently been talking with him just a day or so earlier.

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Steve and I, along with Dennis Kozian and Dennis Sokol were good buddies in the Marine Corps. I have fond memories of the four of us and our adventures as young Marines.

“ We were best buddies while we were going through boot camp in the Marine Corp and while doing weekend duty on Grosse Isle. Lost contact with each other after our Marine Corps.service,but over the years have thought of the good times we shared. So sorry for your loss.

“ Dear Marci & Family, I am so sorry to hear of your sudden loss. I will always remember Steve as a friendly guy who always spoke or waved if he saw you and the kind of guy that wouldn't shy away from any job that had to be done. I never knew a man that would "tinker" or stay as active, just around the house as he did. I spotted him on the roof, just this summer and had to look away. Made me nervous. ;) May you get through these days ahead with God's help and the wonderful memories I know you have of him.....

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. May your faith and memories sustain you during this most difficult time. Jeff, Jon and Amy-I have been where you are and empathize with the loss of your Dad..keep the memories of him alive in your heart and those will lead you through the days when even though he isn't here in person, he will always be with you in memory. Take care of each other. Karyn
