“ I can't believe this! My oldest and best friend is gone? He's the only one in my whole life who not only knew me but loved me inspite. he was there for me at the lowest times of my life and kept me from just quitting. I wouldn't be here and neither would my 4 year old daughter Grace if it weren't for Steve. I knew whatever happened to me, all I had to do was call and he would be there, I wish I was there for him. I will always have a huge hole in my heart where he was. I love you Steve and always will. Jackie if you or the kids need anything at all please call me. Love Always Glen (Asshole)

“ Steve's loss brings much sadness to all who knew and loved him. My hope is that the family find comfort in Jesus' promise that our lost loved ones can live again. Please read John 5:28 in you Bible, may this message of hope bring the family peace.

“ Jan: My heart breaks for you. Losing a child (no matter the age) must always be heartbreaking for parents. Please look back on the lifetime of joys with Steve. Our memories will make us laugh and make us cry and sometimes they're simply not enough. But it's all we have. Love, Carol and Marv

“ To all of Steven's family, Lorri and I extend our deepest condolences during this difficult time. Steven is a wonderful person and his spirit lives in all those who knew him and loved him. He loved the outdoors and like Jesus he was a great fisherman. May he rest now besides peaceful waters, may his casting always be on the mark and may his line taught with great bounty. We are reminded of a quote that we dearly love. "We can only dream of the party that Jesus has in store for us. Steven is LIVING it." May God Bless Steven and all of you "Real Good".

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Steven will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Steven again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.
