“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tears and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Dear Nicole and children, We cannot find words to sooth you at this time. May the Lord Bless you with the strength to care for yourself and your family. Soon, you will be able to smile with many great memories. We will keep you in our thoughts. With much love to a dear girl. Love, Mr and Mrs Broglin

“ Words alone cannot express my sympathy on the untimely death of your beloved husband, father, brother and friend. To say that his time with us was far too short is an understatement. The reality is that he will be sorely missed by all who loved and knew him. No doubt the outpouring of sympathy you have received since his parting has been of some consolation. Hopefully it will serve as a reminder to you of how well-loved and liked he was. I hope that you and your family will find peace and comfort in knowing that his that his just rewards await him. May God bless you and your wonderful family. Yours In Faith, Amy
